Relating.

Father Trouy was escorted from the rectory to the main entrance of the church by members of the fourth degree assembly. Knights of Columbus in full regulia. Others in the procession were Rev. Father Odo Richardt, pastor of Sacred Heart church, indianapolis, under whose pastorate at S. Mary's Claude Trouy entered the Franciscan novitiste; Rev. Father Basil, mastor of St. Mary's, and Rev. Father Alexis, as sistant pastor.

In the line of march also was little Mary Louise McPhillips, dressed as a bride and carrying a crown of roses on a white satin pillow, symbolic of the church, the spouse of Christ. She was attended by little Misses Fithel Shumard. Barbara Lichr and Mary Relik Master Donnell James McCormack, carried the blessed candie, which signifies the light of faith.

Mrs. Rose Trouy, mother of the newly ordained priest and Louis John and Irene Trouy, attended the ceremonies and were first to receive communicant. In his brief sermon Father Odo dealt with the early life of Father Trouy and spoke of the encouragement that had been offered him when an altar boy Missic was under the direction of Miss Mary. O'Callaghan, with Miss Clemence Warner as Larpist.

Following the services Father Trouy imparted his blessing to the congregation.

PROF. SHAW MAY GET A. AND M. PRESIDENCY

WINONA, Miss, July 5. (Spl.)— According to a report current in po-ifical circles there is a strong probabil-ty that the general board of trustees of the Mississippi educational institutions may tender the presidency of the A and M college to Prof. O. A. Shaw, of his city. and M college to Prof. O. A. Shaw, of this city.

Prof. Shaw is the superintendent of the city schools here, and has been for many years. He served recently as chairman of the Musicsippi textbook commission, and has always held a very high place among the prominent educators of the state. While he has never engaged in college work he is fitted and qualified to take up the work of President Smith at A. and M. and carry it on to still higher standards. The report comes from several authentic sources, and it is positively known that Superintendent Shaw is being seriously considered by the board for the place and his home friends are urging his election.
